" After the uphill walk to the Château-Gaillard where you have admired the beautiful point of view on the Seine, you will be rewarded by a warm stop at the home of Paul Fort transformed into a unique tea room in the garden in espalier overlooking the Petit-Andely. You will be under the charm of the hostess and the colors in multiple shades, the sky as the landscape character of pink brick and half-timbered houses. At any time of the day, walks along the Seine are a pleasure of the eyes and the soul as of walkers. A few strolls in small shops or restaurants can make your moments more. "
