" Vaugines is located in the foothills of the grand Luberon. It is a very old, simple and charming village away from the main roads, he has kept all his Provençal soul in quiet alleys decorated with beautiful traditional stone houses of the country, and from a fountain of 1839. This small village is atypical by many aspects compared to the other cities of the region. Indeed, it lacks the bulwark for his defense and seems never to have disposed of. Indeed, it lacks the bulwark for his defense and seems never to have disposed of. For lovers of hiking the Luberon and its paths of backpacking will be your playground. Circuits bicycle you can reach the different villages Provençal and typical markets. "
