Surroundings & location

* Peñiscola: Jewel of the Mediterranean. The Costa del Azahar is home to a popular peninsula of tourists. The city of Peñíscola, in the province of Castellón, is indeed a very famous seaside destination thanks to its 7 km of beaches, but also for its impressive castle of Mako. Moreover, the proximity of many other coastal towns allows tourists to enjoy all the advantages of the region of Valencia. The Valencians intend to accommodate you in their lodges, vacation rentals and Bed &amp; Breakfast in setting your holiday accommodation. Nature and beaches of exception in Peñíscola on the Spanish coast. Located in the Baix Maestrat, Peñíscola is one of the most beautiful sites that border the Mediterranean Sea. It was built on a rock, allowing it to overhang the turquoise waters of the Mare Nostrum lined with beaches of fine sand, beautiful coves and high cliffs. North Beach area includes a natural part with fine sand and an artificial 8 km portion that extends to Benicarló where guests can be accommodated by the inhabitants in their homes, villas and other holiday rentals. The Southeast for its beach ideal for the launching of small boats and jet - skiing, and is nocturnal and tournaments animations place athletes. The city has available for direct hire studios and apartments. To the South, discover the Sierra de Ir. *
