Culture

" This quiet part of the Portugal offers a haven from the stresses of everyday life. Close to the third largest city of the Portugal contains the oldest University of Europe and is well worth a short visit. Perched on the banks of the Mondego River and steeped in history. Great shops, restaurants, cinema and a lively nightlife. Throughout the month of may students occupy the Queima das Fitas, where they burn their dresses and drinking large quantities of beer to celebrate the end of their studies. Fifteen kilometres southwest of Coimbra are the archaeological site and the Museum of the Roman city of Conímbriga. This fascinating attraction is full of artifacts from the year 1 BC. and the city itself has the most beautiful mosaics. We also recommend a visit at noon at the restaurant where you can enjoy views of the ruins, while enjoying a traditional flat Roman and a good bottle of wine for about 10 euros per head. The ruins and museum open all year round, the Museum is closed on Mondays. "
